

Net neutrality has become an essential liberty. If American citizens need to worry about access to certain content or applications, then internet freedom has been taken away. It is an undeniable conflict of interest If certain products or websites can be favored by internet service providers. Please protect our liberties and keep all net neutrality protections.